

Personal Online Banking Terms & Conditions

Revised as of 09.28.2020

This agreement is entered into between MidWestOne Bank (the "Bank") and any customer of the Bank who subscribes to the Bank's Personal Online Banking. The customer is referred to in this Agreement as "you". You should read this Agreement and any other materials you receive before you use Personal Online Banking. If you use Personal Online Banking, or permit another person to use Personal Online Banking on your behalf, you agree to the terms and conditions stated in this Agreement.

Deposit and Loan Agreements

The terms and conditions in this Agreement are in addition to any deposit agreements you have with the Bank, including your signature card, the terms and conditions of your accounts, the accompanying schedules and disclosures, and any change of terms notices (collectively, the "Deposit Agreements"). The terms and conditions in this Agreement are also in addition to the terms and conditions of any loan or credit agreements you have here with the Bank, including any disclosures made pursuant to such agreements (collectively, the "Loan Agreements").

Electronic Funds Transfer Act

Some of the transactions permitted through Personal Online Banking are governed by the Electronic Funds Transfer Act (the "EFTA"), and some of the terms and conditions of this Agreement are disclosures required by the EFTA. Commercial account holders are not covered by the EFTA and therefore certain provisions are not applicable to commercial accounts. Consumer account users can see the full Electronic Funds Transfer Disclosure further in this document.

Computer Requirements

In order to use Personal Online Banking, you will need certain computer and related equipment (referred to in this Agreement as your "Computer"). You are responsible for the installation, maintenance and operation of your Computer and all software. The Bank is not responsible for any errors or failures from any malfunction on your Computer or any software and the Bank is not responsible for any computer virus or related problems that may be associated with the use of the Bank's online system.

Online Account Access

To subscribe to Personal Online Banking, you must have at least one checking, savings or loan account with the Bank. You may gain access to the following types of deposit and loan accounts using Personal Online Banking:

- Checking Accounts
- Savings Accounts
- Certificates of Deposit
- Loans
- Credit Cards

In most cases, you may use Personal Online Banking to gain access to deposit accounts in which you have an unrestricted right to withdraw funds and line of credit accounts in which you have an unrestricted right to borrow money. However, the Bank may, in its discretion, deny Personal Online Banking account access or restrict Personal Online Banking account transactions under certain circumstances.

Description of Personal Online Banking Functions

You may perform the following online transactions: transfer funds between your accounts, obtain account balances and transaction information for your deposit and loan accounts, access online bill pay services, update account information, view and print statements and check images, and send and receive secure messages from the Bank. Your ability to transfer funds between certain accounts is limited by the federal law, as stated in the Deposit Agreements. Transfers must be received by the Bank by 9:00 p.m. (Central Time) on a business day to be processed the same business day. Each transfer made from a loan account is treated as a cash advance from that account and is subject to the terms of the Loan Agreements. You will be provided with a confirmation number for each transfer. Please keep a record of this number to help resolve any questions that you may have concerning the transaction. You agree that you will instruct us to make a transfer only when a sufficient balance is or will be available in the designated account. Do not rely on e-mail if you need to communicate with the Bank immediately. For example, to report a lost or stolen card, or to report an unauthorized transaction from one of your accounts you should contact the Bank immediately in person or by telephone. The Bank will not take actions based on your e-mail requests until the Bank receives your message and has a reasonable opportunity to act. The Bank reserves the right to limit the frequency and dollar amount of transactions from your accounts for security reasons.

Username and Passwords

You will be asked to select your Username (or User ID). Your access to Personal Online Banking and Mobile Banking will expire due to inactivity if not accessed for a period of 180 days. You agree to keep all security codes, including your password, confidential to prevent unauthorized access to your accounts and to prevent unauthorized use of Personal Online Banking. You agree that you are responsible for any transactions, including any charges or fees, made by another person if you provide your password to another person, even if that person is not an account holder. Such transactions will be deemed to be "authorized transactions" under the EFTA. To help safeguard your password, you should change your password frequently. If you forget your password you may request a new one by clicking the link provided. NEITHER MIDWESTONE BANK NOR ITS SERVICE PROVIDERS WILL CONTACT YOU VIA TELEPHONE OR EMAIL REQUESTING PERSONAL INFORMATION, YOUR USERNAME, OR YOUR PASSWORD. IF YOU ARE CONTACTED BY ANYONE REQUESTING THIS INFORMATION, PLEASE CONTACT US IMMEDIATELY.

Fees for Personal Online Banking

The Bank does not currently charge a separate fee for Personal Online Banking. The Bank may charge or add fees for Personal Online

Banking by following the procedures outlined in Paragraph 15 for amending this Agreement. Service charges and fees provided for in the Deposit and Loan Agreement will continue to apply to your accounts. You authorize the Bank to deduct all applicable fees from any deposit account you have at the Bank.

Reporting Unauthorized Transactions

If you believe that an unauthorized Personal Online Banking transaction has been made from your account, you must contact the Bank immediately as indicated in the Electronic Fund Transfer Disclosure section.

Periodic Statements, Notices and Disclosure

The Bank will mail or deliver to you periodic statements, notices and disclosures for your accounts as provided for in the Deposit and Loan Agreements or as required by law. Delivery of these may be made electronically. For consumers, electronic delivery will only be made if you have consented for us to do so. For commercial accounts, enrollment in E-Statements and/or use of Personal Online Banking constitutes your request for electronic delivery of these items. In addition to reflecting your other account activity, your statements will include any activities using Personal Online Banking.

Business Days and Hours of Operation

The business days for the Bank are normally Monday through Friday. Holidays are not business days. Personal Online Banking transfers can only be made on business days. You may use your Computer to reach Personal Online Banking 24 hours a day, seven days a week, except during any special maintenance periods, or in the case of business users as designated by the company.

Your Responsibility

You are responsible for all transfers you authorize using Personal Online Banking. If you permit other persons to use Personal Online Banking for your accounts or your password, you are responsible for any transactions they authorize from your deposit and loan accounts. You should notify the Bank immediately if you believe any of your accounts have been accessed or your password has been used without your permission. Contacting the Bank immediately will help you reduce your potential losses.

Bank's Responsibility

The Bank is responsible for completing transfers on time according to your properly entered and transmitted instructions. However, the Bank will not be liable;

- If you do not have adequate money in a deposit account to complete a transaction from that account, or if that account has been closed;
- If you do not have an available credit in a loan account to complete a transaction from that account, or if that account has been frozen or closed;
- If you have not properly followed instructions on how to make a transfer;
- If you have not given the Bank complete, correct, and current instructions so that the Bank can make a transfer;
- If withdrawals from any of your linked accounts have been prohibited by a court order such as a garnishment or other legal process;
- If your Computer, the software, the web browser, the Internet Service Provider or Personal Online Banking was not working properly and this problem should have been apparent to you when you attempted to authorize a transfer.
- If circumstances beyond the Bank's control prevent making a transfer, despite reasonable precautions that the Bank has taken. Such circumstances include telecommunication outages or failures, fires and floods.

Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement or otherwise expressly provided by applicable law or regulation, you agree that neither the Bank nor any party that provides Internet access or provides equipment used to access Personal Online Banking or any agent, independent contractor, or subcontractor of any of the foregoing will be liable for any loss, injury, damage including without limitation, direct, indirect, incidental, special, consequential, or punitive damages, whether under a contract, tort or any other theory of liability, arising in any way of the installation, use or maintenance of Personal Online Banking or of the Internet access provider used to access Personal Online Banking, or of the equipment used to access Personal Online Banking including, without limitation any loss, injury, or damage relating to any failure of performance, error, omission, interruption, defect, delay in operation or transmission, computer virus, line failure or unauthorized interception or access to your communication with the Bank, even if the Bank is aware of the possibility of such event. At the Bank's discretion, the Bank may disclose to affiliated companies information about your accounts and transactions you have made to or from your accounts; this section does not limit, alter or amend the Bank's information handling practices and privacy policy. The Bank may share certain personal information and device-identifying technical data about you and your devices with third party service providers who will compare and add device data and fraud data from and about you and your devices to a database of similar device and fraud information in order to provide fraud management and prevention services and identify and block access to the applicable service or Web site by devices associated with fraudulent or abusive activity. Such information may be used the Bank and its third party service providers to provide similar fraud management and prevention services for services or Web sites not provided by the Bank.

Once the Bank has acted upon your termination notice, the Bank will make no further transfers from your accounts, including any transfers you have previously authorized. If the Bank terminates your use of Personal Online Banking, the Bank reserves the right to make no further transfers from your accounts, including any transactions you have previously authorized. ELECTRONIC FUND TRANSFERS – YOUR RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

Indicated below are types of Electronic Fund Transfers we are capable of handling, some of which may not apply to your account. Please read this disclosure carefully because it tells you your rights and obligations for the transactions listed. You should keep this notice for future reference.

Electronic Fund Transfers Initiated By Third Parties. You may authorize a third party to initiate electronic fund transfers between your account and the third party's account. These transfers to make or receive payment may be one-time occurrences or may recur as directed by you. These transfers may use the Automated Clearing House (ACH) or other payments network. Your authorization to the third party to make these transfers can occur in a number of ways. For example, your authorization to convert a check to an electronic fund transfer or to electronically pay a returned check charge can occur when a merchant provides you with notice and you go forward with the transaction (typically, at the point of purchase, a merchant will post a sign and print the notice on a receipt). In all cases, these third-party transfers will require you to provide the third party with your account number and bank information. This information can be found on your check as well as on a deposit or withdrawal slip. Thus, you should only provide your bank and account information (whether over the phone, the Internet, or via some other method) to trusted third parties whom you have authorized to initiate these electronic fund transfers. In Case of Errors or Questions About Your Electronic Transfers, Call or Write us at the telephone number or address listed in this disclosure, as soon as you can, if you think your statement or receipt is wrong or if you need more information about a transfer listed on the statement or receipt. We must hear from you no later than 60 days after we sent the FIRST statement on which the problem or error appeared.

NOTICE OF ATM/NIGHT DEPOSIT FACILITY USER PRECAUTIONS

As with all financial transactions, please exercise discretion when using an automated teller machine (ATM) or night deposit facility. For your own safety, be careful. The following suggestions may be helpful.

1. Prepare for your transactions at home (for instance, by filling out a deposit slip) to minimize your time at the ATM or night deposit facility.
2. Mark each transaction in your account record, but not while at the ATM or night deposit facility. Always save your ATM receipts. Don't leave them at the ATM or night deposit facility because they may contain important account information.
3. Compare your records with the account statements or account histories that you receive.
4. Don't lend your ATM card to anyone.
5. Remember, do not leave your card at the ATM. Do not leave any documents at a night deposit facility.
6. Protect the secrecy of your Personal Identification Number (PIN). Protect your ATM card as though it were cash. Don't tell anyone your PIN. Don't give anyone information regarding your ATM card or PIN over the telephone. Never enter your PIN in any ATM that does not look genuine, has been modified, has a suspicious device attached, or is operating in a suspicious manner. Don't write your PIN where it can be discovered. For example, don't keep a note of your PIN in your wallet or purse.
7. Prevent others from seeing you enter your PIN by using your body to shield their view.
8. If you lose your ATM card or if it is stolen, promptly notify us. You should consult the other disclosures you have received about electronic fund transfers for additional information about what to do if your card is lost or stolen.
9. When you make a transaction, be aware of your surroundings. Look out for suspicious activity near the ATM or night deposit facility, particularly if it is after sunset. At night, be sure that the facility (including the parking area and walkways) is well lighted. Consider having someone accompany you when you use the facility, especially after sunset. If you observe any problem, go to another ATM or night deposit facility.
10. Don't accept assistance from anyone you don't know when using an ATM or night deposit facility.
11. If you notice anything suspicious or if any other problem arises after you have begun an ATM transaction, you may want to cancel the transaction, pocket your card and leave. You might consider using another ATM or coming back later.
12. Don't display your cash; pocket it as soon as the ATM transaction is completed and count the cash later when you are in the safety of your own car, home, or other secure surrounding.
13. At a drive-up facility, make sure all the car doors are locked and all of the windows are rolled up, except the driver's window. Keep the engine running and remain alert to your surroundings.
14. We want the ATM and night deposit facility to be safe and convenient for you. Therefore, please tell us if you know of any problem with a facility. For instance, let us know if a light is not working or there is any damage to a facility. Please report any suspicious activity or crimes to both the operator of the facility and the local law enforcement officials immediately.

ALERTS TERMS & CONDITIONS

The following Alerts terms and conditions ("Alerts Terms of Use") only apply to the Alerts feature (as defined below). If Alerts are not available to you, then this Alerts Terms of Use does not apply. To the extent there is any conflict between the terms of the Agreement and this Alerts Terms of Use with respect to Alerts, then the terms in this Alerts Terms of Use shall apply.

Alerts. Your enrollment in MidWestOne Bank Online Banking and/or Mobile Banking (the "Service") includes enrollment to receive transaction alerts and notifications ("Alerts"). Alerts are electronic notices from us that contain transactional information about your MidWestOne Bank account(s). Alerts are provided within the following categories:

- Mandatory Alerts provide you with important account notifications, such as information about changes to your Online Banking password, PIN, or login information. You do not have the option to suppress these Mandatory Alerts.
- Account Alerts provide you with notification of important account activities or when certain changes are made to your Service accounts. These Alerts are automatically activated for you. Although you may suppress these Account Alerts, we strongly recommend that you do not do so because they provide important information related to your Service accounts.
- Additional Alerts must be activated by you to be enabled. These Additional Alerts can be accessed from the More menu within MidWestOne Bank Mobile Banking. Account Alerts and Additional Alerts must be managed and/or added online through the Service. We may add new Alerts from time to time, or cancel old Alerts. We usually notify you when we cancel Alerts, but are not obligated to do so. MidWestOne Bank reserves the right to terminate its Alerts service at any time without prior notice to you.

Methods of Delivery. We may provide Alerts through one or more channels ("EndPoints"): (a) a mobile device, by text message; (b) a mobile device, by push notification; (c) an email account, by an e-mail message; or (d) your MidWestOne Bank Online Banking message in-box, by an e-mail message. You agree to receive Alerts through these EndPoints, and it is your responsibility to determine that each of the service providers for the EndPoints described in (a) through (c) above supports the email, push notification, and text message Alerts provided through the Alerts service. Please be advised that text or data charges or rates may be imposed by your EndPoint service provider. Alert frequency varies by account and preferences. You agree to provide us a valid mobile phone number or email address so that we may send you Alerts. If your email address or your mobile device's number changes, you are responsible for informing us of that change. Your Alerts will be updated to reflect the changes that you communicate to us with regard to your primary and secondary email addresses or mobile device number.

Alerts via Text Message. To stop Alerts via text message, text "STOP" to 99588 at any time. Alerts sent to your primary email address will be unaffected by this action. To restore Alerts on your mobile phone, just visit the Alerts tab in MidWestOne Bank Online Banking and click the box next to your mobile number for the Alerts you'd like to receive again. For help with SMS text alerts, text "HELP" to 99588. In case of questions please contact customer service at 3193565800. Our participating carriers include (but are not limited to) AT&T, SprintPCS, T-Mobile®, U.S. Cellular®, Verizon Wireless, MetroPCS.

Limitations. MidWestOne Bank provides Alerts as a convenience to you for information purposes only. An Alert does not constitute a bank record for the deposit or credit account to which it pertains. We strive to provide Alerts in a timely manner with accurate information. However, you acknowledge and agree that your receipt of any Alerts may be delayed or prevented by factor(s) affecting your mobile phone service provider, internet service provider(s) and other factors outside MidWestOne Bank's control. We neither guarantee the delivery nor the accuracy of the contents of each Alert. You agree to not hold MidWestOne Bank, its directors, officers, employees, agents and service providers liable for losses or damages, including attorneys' fees, that may arise, directly or indirectly, in whole or in part, from (a) a non-delivery, delayed delivery, or the misdirected delivery of an Alert; (b) inaccurate or incomplete content in an Alert; or (c) your reliance on or use of the information provided in an Alert for any purpose.

Alert Information. As Alerts delivered via SMS, email and push notifications are not encrypted, we will never include your passcode or full account number. You acknowledge and agree that Alerts may not be encrypted and may include your name and some information about your accounts, and anyone with access to your Alerts will be able to view the contents of these messages.

Your Responsibilities. You authorize us to convert Items to IRDs or transmit as an image and further authorize us or any other financial institution to which an Item is sent for processing. You agree to, at your sole expense:

We expressly disclaim any responsibility for the security of hardware, software, wireless communication networks or any equipment, facilities or communication channels we do not own or control. Failure to properly secure your mobile device and security credentials may allow an unauthorized party to access the Service and transmit an Electronic Item for deposit. Any use of the Service through your security credentials will be deemed to be authorized by you and binding upon you. You assume the entire risk for fraudulent or unauthorized use of your security credentials. Additionally,

- You agree to contact us immediately if you become aware of any loss, theft, or unauthorized use of the Service or your security credentials.
- You are responsible to review all statements in a timely manner and report in writing any irregularities to the Bank at once.
- You will securely retain original paper checks for a minimum of five (5) Banking days and a maximum of fourteen (14) Banking days after transmission and acceptance.
- You will securely destroy any original paper check after the retention period noted above.

Charges or Fees. We do not currently charge a fee for the Service. We may, upon thirty (30) days advance notice to you, charge a fee for the use of the Service. Handling of Transmitted Items.
